

April 12, 2021

Dear

This letter serves as a follow-up to our email regarding the question of compliance with our charter. In our renewal report, we stated that we have not yet completed our self-study. I recently reread our charter, which indicates that we

I realize that this letter and my email are outside of the factual correction time frame, but I wanted to clarify this point in writing to allow all parties to move forward with an accurate