portal will highlight it in red and the section of the application will be flagged. The applicant will be unable to submit the application to NYSED for final review if a required question remains unresolved.

The online application may only be submitted/certified by the chief school officer of the applicant LEA. The designated superintendent (public school LEAs) or the chief executive officer, board of trustees president, or school employee designated by the board of trustees (charter school LEAs) are the only administrators with the submit/certify rights necessary to successfully submit and certify a completed application for NYSED review.

LEAs are NOT REQUIRED to send hard copies of survey materials to the Department.

- 3. Please describe your analysis of public comment from parents, teachers, and other stakeholders on the plan. This analysis should include the approach to outreach that was implemented and common recommendations or suggestions. For recommendations not reflected in the plan above, what limitations or rationale led to the decision to not include? (250 words or less)

These proposed priority areas were presented to various stakeholders throughout the budget development process, including teachers, parents and members of the community. In addition, the Citizens' Budget Advisory Committee, which is comprised of various stakeholders in the community, held several meetings throughout the budget process and was a tool for collecting feedback from the community for the District to consider in making certain budget decisions. Further, several budget presentations were made to the Board of Education with an opportunity for public comment. As required, a public budget hearing was also held prior to the annual budget vote, giving the stakeholders an opportunity to make comments. Ultimately, the proposed budget was overwhelmingly approved by the community, with a 70% passage rate.
